

NAMI Seattle Support Groups— Online Meetings

Updated June 2021

We are not currently hosting in-person meetings in order to keep our community as safe and healthy as possible. All groups listed below meet online via Zoom. You may join using an electronic device or by calling in via phone. Captioning available.

BIPOC Support Group—Every Tuesday, 5:00-6:00pm. Open to Black, Indigenous and/or People of Color seeking peer mental health support.

Connection Support Group—Every Tuesday, 6:30-8:00pm. Open to anyone living with a mental health condition (no formal diagnosis required).

ECT Support Group—This group will resume in July 2021.

Family Support Group—Every Saturday, 1:30-3:00pm. (This group previously met at Harborview Medical Center.) Open to anyone with a family member/loved one living with a mental health condition.

Family Support Group—3rd Mondays. This group is not currently meeting.

LGBTQ+ Support Group—1st & 3rd Wednesdays, 6:30-8:00pm. This group is open to lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, and other queer-identifying and gender-nonconforming folx who want to explore the intersections of sexuality, gender, and mental health in a safe and welcoming space.

Partners, Siblings & Friends Support Group—2nd & 4th Wednesdays, 6:30-8:00pm. For partners, siblings, and close friends of anyone living with a mental illness. We recognize that supporting people with mental illness in our same generation/peer group brings its own unique set of experiences, and this group offers a space to connect with each other.

Note: The Self-Help Group that previously met on Wednesday mornings at NAMI Seattle is set for an in-person return in Fall 2021! Watch our website for further details.
